

Memo No. 2018-014
Date: 13-Mar-2018
Memo To: Clients
Re: Test Revision – β -2-Microglobulin, Serum Effective Immediately

Effective immediately, the serum β -2-Microglobulin analytical platform has been changed by the testing lab from The Binding Site Optilite to Roche Cobas.

There is a small change in reference range; there is no change in test principle, collection and handling information or price. A memo with further details will be issued soon.

In the meantime, results from the new analyzer platform are being released with an attached text message indicating the change:

“NOTE: Reference range adjusted to reflect new testing platform effective March 6, 2018.”

New Reference Range: 0.80 – 2.20 mg/L (Previous 0.80 – 2.34 mg/L)

The Order and RES Codes for interfaced clients are unchanged.

Order Code: B2MG S RES Code: 28990 Beta2-Microglobulin,S Units: mg/L

Please ensure that your reporting systems capture and report the revised reference value and comment.
